

City of Eau Claire

Landmark Commission

Parish House, Christ Church Cathedral

510 South Farwell Street
1910, Tudor Revival

The Parish House, constructed with the church chancel in 1910, reportedly is patterned after Benham Abbey, Norfolkshire, England. On the ground level, three pairs of recessed windows contain the crests that document the history of the Episcopal faith.