

City of Eau Claire

Landmark Commission

Roy Wilcox House

104 Wilcox Street

1915-16, Prairie School/Georgian Revival

Roy Wilcox was a prominent politician active in both state and local government during the early twentieth century. A native of Eau Claire, Wilcox was a trial lawyer who practiced in the community from 1897 to 1946. He spearheaded the legislation providing for the commission form of government adopted by Eau Claire in 1910. Wilcox served as state senator from 1917-1920. He died in Eau Claire in 1946.