William Schwahn House

447 McKinley Avenue
1928, Georgian Revival

One of the finest examples of the Georgian Revival style in Eau Claire, the Schwahn House exemplifies the characteristic features of the style and retains its original integrity. Schwahn was the vice-president of Schwahn-Seyberth, a saddlery that operated a large factory on Wisconsin Street. Schwahn's father, William E. Schwahn, was a well-known Eau Claire citizen, belonging to the Schuetzen Society where he was a celebrated rifleman.
